

Human Resource for Library and Information Services: Problems and Prospects

Author(s):

Julita Nawe

Abstract:

Lack of consensus among those involved in the profession as employers, trainers, or employees is highlighted as a major problem of human resources in this field. Consensus regarding the cognitive and skills contents matched against actual demands based on hard facts is suggested as a major solution to the problems, be it at the level of acquisition, utilization or retention of human resources.

Keywords:

Developing countries, Human asset accounting, Libraries, Trainers