Be proud of Mwalimu, says Hanga

TANZANIA should be proud of her President, Mwalimu J. K. Nyerere, whose foresight would make this country a prosperous one and also give the Republic a good name.

This was said by the Minister of State, President's Office, Mr. Kassim Hanga when addressing a public meeting attended by over 8,000 people at Utete, Rufiji district this week.

Reminding the people to be united, Mr. Hanga said: "through unity Tanzania will achieve its progress. Unity, made possible the creation of Tanzania and it will be practically impossible for any one to disunite the two countries."

He pointed out that lack of knowledge of skills which was the problem facing the country, would be soon solved as local personnel acquired the necessary training. He added that scholarships were being given to pupils to study different courses to meet the demand for qualified local manpower.

He appealed to people in the country to maintain strong confidence and faith in the Union so that efforts to unite East African countries would have a basis. He stressed that Tanzania policy was to see that Africa was united in order to enable it to have a stronger voice and to be able to withstand any foreign attack.
