'Mwalimu a remarkable personality'

THE Indian High Commissioner, Mr. N. V. Rao, said yesterday that during the short time he had been in Tanzania he had become very impressed by the ethical and moral values on which the freedom movement of the country had been founded and which were today shaping the broad policies of the Government.

Mr. Rao, who was opening the Janmashtami Fete at the Patel Brotherhood Grounds, Dar es Salaam, described President Nyerere as "a most remarkable and enlightened personality" whose humanism and intense moral convictions cut across all barriers of race, colour and creed. He urged his audience to find ways and means of drawing on their experience, resources and skills to sustain and strengthen the work of Mwalimu.
